Policies and Procedures

Description of Course

The purpose of any language is to communicate. With that in mind, lessons are structured to provide students with multiple opportunities to actively use the language in meaningful and authentic situations.

In French 1 the student can expect to learn basic expressions, vocabulary, grammatical structures, simple questions and answers (present tense). The material is learned through contextual units or themes: Getting Acquainted, Describing Oneself and Others, Food and Restaurants, Money and Shopping, School and Education, Daily Activities, Getting Around Town, Possessions and their Description, Buying Clothes, Leisure Activities.

Semester Exams

At the end of each semester students will be given a comprehensive exam that allows them to demonstrate their proficiency and mastery of the material covered in that semester. This exam counts as 20% of their semester grade.

Make-up work

All make-up work must be completed within five days following an excused absence. A zero will be given if not made up in the allotted time.

Extra help

- Mondays after school from 3:30 to 4:30
- Online Practice:
<http://amhs.ccsdschools.com/>
- Tutoring offered during lunch

Extra credit

There will always be opportunities for students to improve their grade if needed.

Il faut suivre les règles pour bien apprendre et mieux s'entendre!
